A word from the Head

The Christmas break seems like a distant memory and the spring term is in full swing. Can I take this opportunity to welcome our new starters that have joined the school this term: Daniel and Jessica Milner, Charlotte Allen and Leon Robinson. You are all very welcome and well done on settling in so well in such a short time.

Mrs Hunter had a little girl during the Christmas break and we would like to congratulate her and all the family on the safe arrival of, Otilie Beaux.

A Growth Mind-Set approach to learning has been introduced this term and I do hope your children have spoken to you about some of things they have done already. We will be inviting parents in later on in the term to highlight the key features of this and to detail our intentions.

Next week, Reception will be starting the topic 'People Who Help Us' and we have some exciting visits planned from the Police and Fire Brigade. However, the children have expressed an interest in finding out about other professions including Vets, Doctors, Nurses, Paramedics, Hairdressers and Builders. If you work in one of these professions or know someone who does and would be willing to visit us before half term please contact Miss Billington.

A brief note to inform you about something that was not in the calendar, on Wed 28th Feb – Wed 7th March the Scholastic Book Fair will be coming into school. More information will be provided nearer the time.

Just a small reminder about uniform; girls are allowed to wear a pair of earrings but these must be small plain gold or silver ones. Also, as part of the girls uniform red tights are compulsory in the junior school.

Thought of the fortnight: "Mistakes are proof that you are trying."
